CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Thomas Parrott
Executive Office of the President

SUBJECT: Chinese Nationalist Maritime Activities Against the China Mainland

1. This memorandum contains a summary of available information on Chinese Nationalist maritime activities along the China coast. [redacted] were unilateral missions conducted by the Nationalist Intelligence Bureau of the Ministry of National Defense (IBMND). [redacted]

2. [redacted]

3. During October the IBMND dispatched approximately eight maritime teams against points along the Kwangtung coast for missions which were apparently intended to collect intelligence and assess resistance potential. The teams consisted of about a dozen men each.

4. The first four teams were launched during early October against the points indicated on the attached map as 1, 2, 3, and 4. [redacted] the following is an approximate reconstruction of events:

(a) Team #1 survived for four or five days. About half of its members were killed and the other half captured. [redacted]
